DAVID L. ESLECK TRIO (featuring JORDAN GARRETT) Concert

Sunday December 14, 2025 at Urbanna Baptist at 4 P.M.

In The Church Sanctuary

Dr. David Esleck: Performer, Composer, Producer, Educator. Although experienced as a multi-instrumentalist, he focuses on the piano, both as a soloist and with the David Esleck Trio. He is heard in concerts and recitals around the country, including performances for and with Presidents, heads of state, CEO's, Hollywood stars, and musical figures like The Preservation Hall Jazz Band and Tony Bennett. His latest release, on Yesyes Records, "Little Ears," was listed on the ballot for the GRAMMY awards, and is available on Amazon.com, Pandora, and Spotify.

Jason Jenkins, bass, is a graduate of Hampton University in Hampton, VA. A "Downbeat Magazine" award winner, he appears both as a sideman and with his own group, The Jason Jenkins Quartet. Jason's latest recording with that group, "Aphelion," is currently in release.

Keith Willingham is a gifted and sought after musician on two different instruments, the trumpet and the drum set. Studies at both James Madison and Virginia Union Universities prepared him for first-call status he now enjoys. Keith is a frequent performer at the many jazz venues around the East Coast, and has appeared with the Temptations, Martha Reeves, and the First Impressions.

Jordan Garrett is a vocalist, pianist, composer, songwriter, conductor, and performer. She started her music career as a songwriter in Harrisonburg, Virginia while attaining a bachelor's degree in Music Industry from James Madison University's School of Music, enjoying both the choral and instrumental world. In addition to her full academic life, she continues to perform throughout the country, both as a pianist and a vocalist.
